

How to get there

The 555 bus leaves Bodmin town hourly for Bodmin Parkway, where you catch the train to Plymouth. Alternatively, buy a National Express coach ticket (£6 adult return fare) from Bodmin Visitor Information Centre

Things to do

Shop 'til you drop in the city centre, Armada Centre, and Drakes Circus

A visit to the historic Barbican is a must –

1. Stand on the Mayflower steps from where the Pilgrim Fathers set sail for the new World in 1620
2. Visit The Elizabethan House a Tudor Museum on New Street, the Barbican (adults £2 – closed in winter)
3. Stroll around The Merchants House on St Andrews Street, a mini museum giving you a taste of what Plymouth used to be like (adults (£2 – closed in winter)
4. Visit the National Marine Aquarium (adults £11 – open daily)
5. Have a guided tour of the Plymouth Gin Distillery

Stroll up to the Hoe for great views of Plymouth Sound – observe the War Memorial, Smeaton's Tower (former Eddystone lighthouse), and Drake's statue

Spend an afternoon at the Plymouth Pavilions ice skating or swimming

Visit the VUE Cinema a 15 screen multiplex which also includes Megabowl ten pin bowling

Take in an afternoon show at the Plymouth Theatre Royal

Spend some time at the Plymouth City Museum/ Art gallery at Drake's Circus (free – open Tues – Sat)

Please don't hesitate to contact the friendly staff at Bodmin Visitor Information Centre, on 01208 76616, if you would like help or advice on visiting Plymouth, or bus and train timetable information.

“Leave the Car at home Days”
Places to visit Using public Transport

Bodmin to Plymouth

“Come to Plymouth and experience a rich combination of heritage and natural beauty in a thriving maritime city. Plymouth is an extraordinary blend of vibrant modern city and historic seafaring port”

This leaflet has been compiled by Bodmin Visitor Information Centre, ‘Gold’ award winners at the 2009 Cornwall Tourism Awards- Best Tourist information Centre. With compliments, Bodmin Visitor Information Centre ☎ 01208 76616. Reviewed and updated. January 2010.